RESIGNATION OF DIRECTOR – CHARLIE AITKEN

Monday, 20 October 2014 – Charlie Aitken has announced his resignation from the board of Bell Financial Group Limited as an executive director of the company, effective today.

BFG Chairman Colin Bell said “Charlie’s new role will focus on Bell Potter’s core private clients and the company’s high net worth client business. He will continue to write investment strategy via the daily ‘Ring the Bell’ newsletter and in conjunction with the company’s retail advisers will increase his face to face contact with individual investors throughout the company’s national network.”

“We are delighted that Charlie has agreed to step into this new position” said Mr Bell.
